Description

Son Balagueret is a traditional and quiet Majorcan finca with plenty of space to relax and enjoy the beautiful views of the Mediterranean Sea. This finca is full of history, because the original tower is attached to the house, dates back to the 13th century. Spread over three floors, Son Balagueret can accommodate up to eight people, each overlooking the original landscape with its many citrus, almond and olive trees. This finca is one of the 3 country houses located on the estate Son Bunyola, ideal for a family holiday, corporate event or a wedding party. The many small hiking and biking trails allow you to explore the approximately 680-acre estate excellent, a small trail leads you in about 20 minutes to a small pebble beach.

Specials

The estate Son Bunyola, with its many citrus, almond and olive trees, also includes the two fincas Sa Terra Rotja and Sa Punta de S'Aguila, which are scattered throughout the estate and ideal for family or wedding events.
